

MLC MYSUPER CLASS ACTION (FORMERLY THE NAB MYSUPER CLASS ACTION)
Shimshon & Anor v MLC Nominees Pty Limited & NULIS Nominees (Australia) Limited
(Supreme Court of Victoria Case S ECI 2020 00306)

FUNDING INFORMATION SUMMARY STATEMENT

1. How is the MLC MySuper Class Action funded?

There is no third party litigation funder involved in the case. All costs associated with the class action will be borne by Maurice Blackburn, unless there is a successful outcome to the MLC MySuper Class Action (such as a settlement that is approved by the Court or a judgment by the Court awarding damages to group members). Maurice Blackburn's retainer agreement sets out the terms on which it is acting: see

<https://www.mauriceblackburn.com.au/class-actions/current-class-actions/mlc-mysuper-class-action/>

2. How are legal fees and disbursements charged?

The plaintiffs' legal fees and disbursements are 'conditional', meaning that they are only recoverable by Maurice Blackburn if there is a successful outcome in the class action. Amounts recoverable by Maurice Blackburn for legal fees and disbursements must be approved by the Court as reasonable, before being deducted from the money to be paid to group members. Those deductions will never exceed a group member's recovery.

If there is a successful outcome, the plaintiffs' legal fees and disbursements will be calculated using time based billing for professional fees, with disbursements (for example, fees for experts and barristers) charged at cost.

3. Who can group members contact for further information about the funding or costs of the class action?

Group members may contact Maurice Blackburn, at no out of pocket cost, via:
